ACTIVITIES & EVENTS

Our Residents Turn Tattoo Artists for the Day

On 17th July, our residents got creative in honour of National Tattoo Day. They designed their own tattoo ideas and had the chance to "tattoo" some of our brave staff members - don't worry, it was all temporary!

The session sparked lots of light-hearted conversations about tattoo styles, placement, and the meaning behind different designs. Many shared whether they had tattoos themselves or what they might choose if they were to get one. It was a great way to connect and share stories in a relaxed, fun setting.

A Trip to the Dance Showcase

A group of our ladies recently enjoyed a special outing to see a local dance school's summer showcase, just before the dancers headed off to a world competition.

The group was thoroughly impressed by the talent on display and the high standard of choreography. It was particularly heart-warming to see one of our regular visitors take to the stage - there was a real sense of pride and joy in the audience!

Wimbledon Fever

Wimbledon was, once again, a popular event at the home this summer. Our residents gathered to watch the matches with the traditional treats of strawberries and cream, accompanied by a glass of Prosecco.

We also spent time reminiscing about classic tournaments from years gone by. Some matches from decades past were watched and compared to today's game, which brought about some lively discussion!

Making the Most of the Sunshine

We've been incredibly lucky with the weather here in Edinburgh over the last few months, and we've made sure to enjoy it as much as possible. Residents have had lovely walks to Victoria Park, a peaceful trip on the barge, and many relaxing hours spent in our beautiful garden.

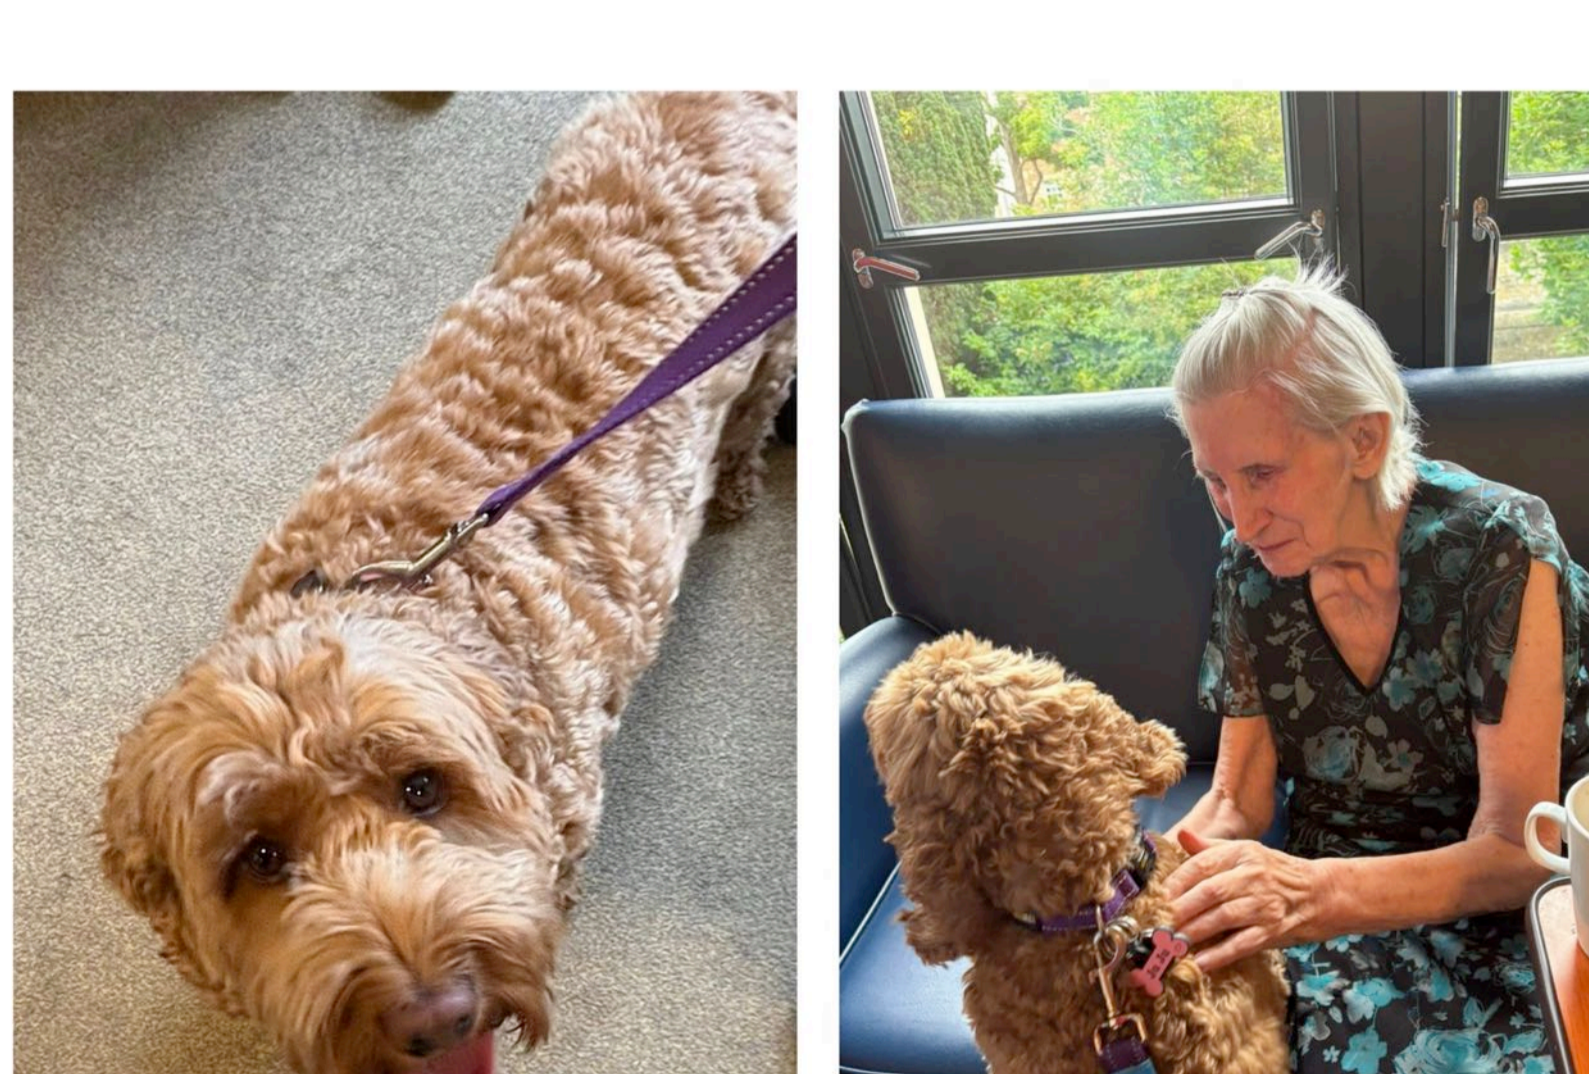

It's been wonderful to see how much everyone has benefited from the fresh air and sunshine - spirits have been high, and there's been a lovely atmosphere around the home.

Meet Jura – Our New Furry Friend

We're very happy to share that we have a new regular visitor: Jura, a lovely therapy dog who will now be coming to see us every second Thursday.

Jura has been working as a therapist for two years and, along with her owner, is looking forward to getting to know all of us here at Trinity. We're sure she'll be a big hit!
